

Individuals must be juried to become a member of Artisans on Main (Souris) Inc. Members may be required to re-jury if payment of Active Membership fee is not received within a 12-month period after having work successfully meet Standards Guidelines.

The Jury Committee meets at dates and times to be announced. Applicants must submit 3 pieces in any one medium to the Jury Committee. All work submitted must be made by the Applicant, must have been produced within the last 12 months and must be representative of the work you intend to sell at Artisans on Main (Souris) Inc.

Decisions are based on the PEICC Standards Guidelines and can be found at www.peicraftscouncil.com. They look for design excellence, quality, workmanship, originality and the sales potential for the artwork. The Committee indicates its decision in writing approximately 2 weeks after the submissions deadline. Should your work meet the Standards Guidelines you will be invited to become a Professional Member of Artisans on Main (Souris) Inc.
